Good morning Kathy,

Second time is the charm?

Please let me know your thoughts or suggested edits.

Hi, I need to get something to eat, here are some initial thoughts regarding pieces I think we need to/should use and restructuring these. I think maybe you are confusing a few issues. let's talk.

Hey Kathy,

I have attached 3 of 4 of the option papers. The last one is the hardest because it discusses reasonable alternatives in reference to meeting ESA guidelines. Hopefully the other 3 are not atrocious and are on point enough to generate a dialogue within the work group. I am open the rest of the day if you want to meet and discuss prior to looking them over for the group. I will do my best to get you a draft of the final option later this afternoon.

Sincerely,

Stephanie

Hey Kathy,

I hope you had a great weekend. Sorry I missed this message this morning. Is there a chance that I can send you my drafts in the afternoon? I want to clean them up more and there was a few spots where I needed to double check the regs.

Sincerely,

Stephanie

This will be the first time they see it. So it need not be perfect it can have comment bubbles.

Thanks,

Kathy Hurlid
